THEME: EXPLORING IMAGINARY WORLDS

Task 1: Create Your Own Fantasy Story

Imagine you stumble upon a magical door in your backyard. When you open it, you find yourself in an enchanting world filled with mythical creatures, talking animals, and hidden treasures. Write a captivating fantasy story about your adventures in this magical realm. Remember to include:

- Introduction: Describe the mysterious door and your initial feelings.
- Setting: Paint a vivid picture of the fantastical world you discover.
- Characters: Introduce unique beings you encounter (e.g., a mischievous pixie, a wise old tree, or a friendly dragon).
- Plot: Share your thrilling adventures, challenges, and how you eventually find your way back home.
- Conclusion: Reflect on what you've learned from this magical experience.

Task 2: Book Review

Choose a book you've read recently (fiction or non-fiction) and write a concise book review. Include:

- Title and Author: Mention the book's title and the author's name.
- Summary: Briefly summarize the plot or main ideas.
- Opinion: Share your thoughts—did you enjoy it? Why or why not?
- Recommendation: Would you recommend it to your classmates? Why?

Task 3: Grammar Detective

Explore your surroundings and find examples of different parts of speech (nouns, verbs, adjectives, etc.). Create a colorful chart or poster showcasing these examples. Be a grammar detective!

Remember to enjoy your holidays while completing these tasks. Happy writing
